German Missions in Canada

German Consulate General Montreal

There may be an ocean between Germany and Quebec, but we are connected by strong shared interests and values. At the Consulate General in Montréal, we build on this every day. And just like in sports, it's not the size of the team that counts, but the enthusiasm and commitment. It is a great privilege for my team and me to contribute to deepening the friendship between Germany and Canada in Quebec.

Note on barrier-free access

The Consulate General supports citizens with disabilities and strives to facilitate their access to its premises within the limits of the architectural constraints.

Barrier-free access to the office building is located at 1250 René-Lévesque Boulevard West. All doors of the building are sufficiently wide, but do not have automatic closing or opening mechanisms. The consulate can be reached by an elevator. There is no structural or technical support for blind and visually impaired people. There are accessible toilets on the consulate general's floor.

Please contact us to make prior arrangements, if you have further questions regarding accessibility, or if you need assistance.
